

USRFR Office Holders 2017 - 2018

President

Shane Toolan is a retired banker from Donegal who is still an active Rugby referee as well as a referee for Gaelic sports, an ex-Irish international athlete and is active in his civic community.

Senior vice President

Adrian Millar is a civil servant, a member of Coleraine and is still an active referee.

Junior Vice President

David Napier is a retired teacher and long member of Ballynahinch rugby club

Honorary Treasurer

Neil Stewart is the bursar at Foyle College, a member of City of Derry and is still an active referee.

Honorary Membership Secretary

Harold Jacobs is a retired banker and a long-time member of Ophir. Harold has been involved in refereeing since 1969

Honorary Secretary

Stephen Crooke is an engineer, a member of Cooke and is still an active referee.

Council members

In addition to the officers of the society the council of the society is populated by

Chair of Management Committee

Simon McDowell is a quarry manager, a member of Harlequins and an ex international referee.

Chair of Operations Committee

Roger Cleave is a factory manager, a member of Ballynahinch and is still an active referee.

Chair of Activities Committee

Adrian Reavey is drugs rep, a member of Portadown and is still an active referee.

Chair of Selection Committee

George Reid is a retired civil servant, and a member of civil service.

IPAS coordinator

Paul Eakin is a company director

Induction coordinator

John Crothers is a retired teacher and a member of Instonians

Coaching coordinator

Jack Young is a retired teacher

Assessment coordinator

Ian Thompson is a distribution manager

Referee Development Officer

Kevin Beggs is an employee of the IRFU and development officer for USRFR

Child Welfare Officer

Bill Halliday is a retired teacher and a member of Hollywood.

Meeting coordinator

Chris Busby is a sports complex manager, a senior referee and member of Ballyclare.

NW meeting coordinator

Adrian Millar is a civil servant, a member of Coleraine area and is still an active referee.

Jonny Erskine, a teacher at Banbridge Academy and the 2017 referee of the year.

Rab Weir a retired government official, member of Grosvenor and the Perennials.

Eamonn Whealan a factory manager and a member of Banbridge.

David Wilson a civil servant and President of BHSFP.

Representative to the Branch Committee

Mark Orr is a QC and SC barrister and a long-time member of Dromore. He is still an active referee.

Representative to the Rugby Committee

Rab Weir a retired government official, member of Grosvenor and the Perennials

Representative to the Clubs Committee

Teddy Hall is an account manager with BT and a long-time member of Bangor. He is still an active referee.

Representative to the Youth Committee

Michael Cairnduff is a bank official and is still an active referee.

Greater Belfast meeting coordinator

Brain Wilson is a consultant, a member of Ballynahinch and is still an active referee.

Representatives to the Disciplinary Committee

The society have four reps to the branch discipline committee.

John Coyle, an estate agent who is still an active referee.

John King, a safety consultant and a member of Ballynahinch.

Brian McCargo a retired civil servant and long-time member of Malone.

Alan Ward a civil servant and member of Cooke, who is still refereeing.